

April 2024 YA Newsletter

Highlights of April

- New Content
- Review of Resources offered
- Ways to get in touch
- Exciting Announcement

Teen Lounge!

Check out our Teen Lounge in the HPL! This is a place where teens can go and have their own space to hang out with their friends. Yes, they may read... but they don't have to!

Social Media

The Teen Lounge

Making Connections

The Teen Lounge has helped teens make connections with new people for years! However, whether they are new or old friends that you hang out with in the lounge there is always laughter, joy and side shenanigans happening over in our little corner.

NEW

Coming soon we will unveil our new game table. This is a giant “tablet” that sits on legs, like a table. That way all of your friends can gather ‘round and you can all play different games that are pre-downloaded! We thank the generous supporter of the library for their generous donation!

At the end of May we are looking at having an author visit for Young Adults and older. This author’s name is Rachel Weidner and we have one of her books in our collection already. Make sure to check it out before she comes to talk about her book with us! Rachel currently lives in Humboldt, so you might see her around, or maybe catch a glimpse of her working on her next novel!

More details to come.

Contact Us

New Content

Bad Like Us

By: Gabriella Lepore

Thriller, Contemporary.
Murder Mystery

Spring break is a vibe—until someone gets murdered. Partying with popular classmates they barely know is not what Eva and her BFFs had in mind for their spring break. But things have been off ever since Miles' academic career took a turn for the worse (they don't talk about it), so a trip to a private beach lodge might be exactly what they need. And Eva won't admit it, but the chance to reconnect with Colton is worth putting up with Piper's constant livestreams to her thousands of "besties."

At first, it's all sand and waves, but tensions run high when an anonymous letter shakes up an already-flailing love triangle. When someone turns up dead, Eva can't even trust her closest friends—but she thinks she can trust Colton. As they get closer to the truth, they uncover secrets that upend everything they thought they knew about their fellow spring breakers.

Newer DVD's

Did you know we have DVDs?

You can check out a DVD with us for free for three days. After that lending period there is a $1.00 user fee that you have to pay a day for those DVD's being late.

Some New Content

Thank you for Reading!

Please make sure
to reach out if you have any questions
or recommendations
for our Teen Area!